DATENT COMBINATION SOAP .-PATENT COMBINATION SOAP.—

A recent invention; great saving in the cost of Soap for washing; being the greatest labor-saving article yet invented! No other. Soap is needed in a family, for any dippose whatever. The inventions have labored hard and long its combine in the most concentrated and convenient form a Soap that will save labor, and that can be used with perfect safety. It takes the dirt from dothes by using a very small quantity, by simply soaking, boiling, and rinsing (except clothes have stains, of are very dirty, in that case, all title should be rubbed on before boiling. It is converted into Soft Soap by dissolving into bot water, and, when made as per directions, costs about 5 cents per gallon—exceeding any other for all purposes for which Soap is need. The Fatent Combination Soap being very hard, and containing no resin—making it the best, and by far the cheap sit "har Soap" ever used—it renders hard and sait water equal to soft for washing purposes, and, being free from acids, cannot injure or yellow clothes in the least. Consumers and dealers will do well to make themselves according with this grance without delay.

DATENT ZINC PAINTS—As manufactured by the New-Jersey Exploring and Mining Company—for sale by the quantity only.

WHITE ZINC PAINTS—The No. 1 quality, ground in either Oit, Spirits of Turpentine, or in Varnish, (which gives the porcelain finish so much admired) is whiter than the purest white lead, is free from all foreign impurities, and cesuitate of the unpleasant smell and poissonous properties of lead paints.

The Nos. 2 and 3 qualities are in all respects like the No. 1, except not quite so white. They come at lower prices, and are well adapted to outside work.

The Dry White Oxide of Zinc, mixed with water and a little size, makes a brilliant and lasting white coating for walls and ceilings.

A suitable dryer is prepared for the paint, and it is in all other respects need like white lead, except that it should not be quite so much thinned down with oil.

DARK BROWN AND BLACK ZINC PAINTS—These are furnished at a low price, and are undoubtedly the cheapest and best paints in the market. They are invaluable for tin roofs and from surfaces of all kinds, being a perfect protection against fire.

The attention of dealers is requested by the Company's General Agents.
